MISS GREGORY'S

TALKS TO YOUNG WOMEN. NUMBER NINETEEN.

NUMBER NINETEEN.

You may be, or at least should be, interested in the announcement made by the C. & P. Telephone Co. eigewhere in this column, relative to the various talks of mine given in this space during the past month. I have in these talks endeavored conscientiously to bring to the attention of prospective operators the many advantages offered them by this company in salary bonus payments, and working conditions. You may not have read all these talks; you who have not answered the call they sound certainly have not or I am sure. If you are eighteen or over and eligible, otherwise you would now be enjoying the exceptional advantages offered in this vocation.

It is not good form, I know, to extell these talks, but I must say in absolute truth that they are now, and will be in the future, an honest presentation of the policy of this company toward their employes. If you are not fully persuaded and preparing right now that long deferred visit to my office, send for the talks that have gone before, then, in justice to yourself, if you want a pleasant and profitable employment you will
